WHAT CONSTITUTES A PARTY/ DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR?
State law and local fire ordinances note the maximum number of guests in a king bedded room is two (2) or four (4) in a double-bedded room. The following are just some of the possibilities that constitute a party.

- Any noise or activity that occurs that disrupts the tranquil atmosphere of the hotel
- Running in the hallways or stairwells, or slamming of doors
- Group gatherings in halls is a violation of local fire codes
- Royal Park Hotel reserves the right to consider additional behaviors not listed as a violation of our rules and regulations on parties. Guest(s) may be asked to leave the premises at any time without a refund.

These policies and their strict enforcement are our way of ensuring an enjoyable visit for all guests. The Rochester Police Department strongly supports Royal Park Hotel in doing our part to protect our guests, employees, assets, and the safety of all persons concerned.
